Agency Press Release

It is with a heavy heart that we are forced to cancel our upcoming shows in the Oregon, Illinois and Alaska this month due to the need for Jacoby Shaddix to have immediate vocal cord surgery and rest.

This week Jacoby was advised by his Doctors to have surgery on his vocal cord to give his vocal muscles enough time to heal before Papa Roach resumes their current touring schedule. Jacoby had a similar surgery about five years ago.

Fortunately, the diagnosis was made early and full recovery should be soon. The vocal cords are a muscle and like any athlete, muscles can get injured in the course of their profession and we appreciate your understanding this diagnosis.

We wish to thank all of our fans in advance for your prayers and good wishes. We know some of you had travel plans and we will return next year to perform for you.

Canceled Dates:

August 11, 2017. Roseburg OR. Douglas County Fair

August 19, 2017. Carterville, IL. Moonstock 2017

August 25, 2017. Palmer, AK. Alaska State Fair
